Shifting from my “wants of God” to the “will of God”

II: Peace in the Will of God

Isaiah 26:1-9

(Background Scripture: Isaiah 24 &25)

Opening Thoughts:

If I am in the will of God, then God promises me peace and protection, but I must be faithful.

What makes it hard to be faithful to the will of God?

What is the benefit of remaining faithful to God’s will?

According to Isaiah 26:1-9...

1. According to verse 1, a person who is faithful to the will of God must be willing to _____.

When I begin my journey with praise, then God gives me the blessing of _____.

2. According to verse 2, only those who are _____ may enter the city God promises to the faithful.

3. According to verse 3, I can expect a blessing of _____ when I trust the Lord.

So, why should I trust the Lord and walk in the will of God?

1. I can trust God because He is _____ (v.4)

2. I can trust God because He _____ (v.5-6)

3. I can trust God because He _____ (v.7)

When I trust in and remain faithful to God, I must...

1. Demonstrate the ability to be _____ (v.8)
2. Demonstrate my _____ to do His will. (v.9)

CLOSING PRAYER:

During this Lenten season, God help me to be faithful to your will. Teach me how to remain faithful even when it seems easier to walk away. As I remain faithful to Your will, I thank You that the reward of peace will surpass any other need I may think I have. As I wait for your works, prepare me to praise and to never straying away from your will for my life. In Jesus' name, Amen

May this lesson position you for peace as you seek the will of God!

Blessings,
Pastor C
